

POSITION DESCRIPTION

Classroom Teacher Warragul Secondary School

Position Title:	Secondary Teacher
Reports to:	Head of Faculty/Head of School
Campus:	Warragul Secondary School

The following Position Description is intended to give prospective applicants an overview of the intended position only. It is not intended to be an exhaustive summary of tasks and duties. It is expected that specific tasks and functions will change from time to time in line with School's operational structures and programs.

Primary Purpose

Classroom teachers are expected to be specialists in their chosen disciplines and be able to establish a strong rapport with their students. They should know both the material they are teaching and how best to impart this knowledge to the students in their care. They are expected to be supportive of the School's philosophies, direction and Christian ethos.

In their manner, attire, work ethic and ability to work collaboratively with their colleagues, they are expected to demonstrate the highest levels of professionalism. All classroom teachers are expected to work respectfully with colleagues and demonstrate work practices consistent with the Code of Conduct.

Teachers at St Paul's Anglican Grammar School are also expected to contribute to the development of students outside the classroom setting and, as such, are required to participate in excursions, camps and co-curricular activities. Each member of staff is also expected to carry out direct pastoral responsibilities in the role of mentor teacher.

Position in Context

All classroom teachers are accountable to their respective Heads of Faculty for the preparation and presentation of the curriculum. In regards to pastoral matters they are supported by Heads of Year. Both Heads of Faculty and Heads of Year report to the Head of School. The Head of School reports to the Deputy Principal and Principal.

Freedom to Act/Autonomy

Classroom teachers are expected to take initial responsibility for classroom management and the delivery of the curriculum in each of their classes. They are guided in this by the Heads of Year and Heads of Faculty. All classroom teachers are expected to comply with the School's Policies and Procedures and work as directed by the Principal or the Head of School.

Appraisal

Based on the Role Description and, more specifically, the Key Performance Indicators, the performance of classroom teachers will be appraised annually by the relevant Head(s) of Faculty.
